Inverloch

Day 1 (L,D) MELBOURNE, YARRAGON, KORUMBURRA, INVERLOCH

Today we travel to Yarragon, a delightful town with many specialty shops and galleries. Morning tea and a little time to browse before we continue to Korumburra for a light lunch. A short visit at Coal Creek before driving along the beautiful hills of the Strzelecki Ranges to our destination for five nights, RACV Resort Inverloch.

Day 2 (B,L,D) TARWIN LOWER, VENUS BAY, CAPE PATERSON

Visit Tarwin Lower and Venus Bay situated on a narrow peninsula of land, bordered on one side by the wild seas of Bass Strait and on the other by the calm waters of Anderson Inlet. Following a light lunch we enjoy the Bunurong Coastal Drive, a stunning 14 kilometre stretch of coastline between Cape Paterson and Inverloch. Magnificent scenery!

Day 3 (B,L,D) CHURCHILL ISLAND, PHILLIP ISLAND

Today we visit Kilcunda Cliffs and Churchill Island with its historic working farm and original 1872 homestead. Visit the Koala Conservation Centre for an opportunity to get very close to wild koalas. Lunch at the Seal Centre Cafe at The Nobbies and then experience the "Antarctic Journey" an interactive virtual tour into the marvellous world and captivating landscape and stunning wildlife of the Southern Ocean and Antarctica. Marvel at a whale within arm's reach or pat a penguin. We return to Inverloch via Cowes, Phillip Island's main settlement.

Koala Conservation Centre

The modern RACV Inverloch Resort is located facing the beach on the picturesque South Gippsland coast. Boasting panoramic views of the Bass Coast and Anderson Inlet the resort is just a few minutes from the attractive seaside township of Inverloch. Leisurely day trips include the scenic Bunurong coastal drive, superb Wilsons Promontory and charming Phillip Island. Our ocean view rooms have private balconies with walk in showers. Full breakfast is served in the resort restaurant, dinners at the resort or at local restaurants.

Day 4 (B,L,D) WILSONS PROMONTORY NP

Superb scenery as we visit Wilsons Promontory National Park. Enjoy extensive coastal views on route to the most southern coastline on the Australian mainland. Take in the views before arriving at Tidal River. Following lunch there is time to visit the Information Centre, enjoy a short stroll to Norman Bay or try the Loo Ern boardwalk. Later we stop at Squeaky Beach, aptly named!

Day 5 (B,L,D) MIRBOO NORTH

Enjoy morning tea and view the murals at Mirboo North before returning via Meeniyan to enjoy a light lunch at Koonwarra. We have some free time this afternoon to relax at the resort.

Day 6 (B,L) LOCH, CALDERMEADE, MELBOURNE

This morning a scenic drive along Andersons Inlet Road to Loch, our morning tea stop. Time to enjoy the antique and craft shops, bric-a-brac stores, galleries, original buildings and colourful cottage gardens. Lunch at Caldermeade Farm and Café. Settled in 1875, Caldermeade was originally one of the region's premier beef cattle properties. Today it is a modern, fully operational commercial dairy farm. We arrive in Melbourne mid afternoon, completing a thoroughly relaxing stayput holiday in Inverloch.
